

Prebid Meeting
12-07-2019

Sl. No.	Query	Response
1.	Attack Generator – No. of Interfaces 2*10/2*100 (10G-100G Traffic) 2*10G/2*100G => DoT/IISc is expecting One hardware and 2 Software (Traffic Generator and Attack Generator). L1 should be based on combined price of both the tools if they are based on single hardware	Application traffic generators and attack traffic generators may run as applications on common hardware (Interface Module) are pluggable to supported Hardware Chassis. Tool should be capable to test and analyses an application forwarding performance of DUT under no attack and under attack independently at line rates of 10 Gbps and 100 Gbps
2.	Both Annex A&B refer to different enquiry number if both the tools are based on same hardware, it should be same enquiry number	It is a single order
3.	Initially Software will be given in USB and updates/upgrades can be downloaded from cloud based account. (Ref 3.d(6))of RFP	Acceptable
4.	For getting customs exemption =>(Refer 4.a) of RFP	Quote must be in US $. Tool quoted in Indian Rupees is not eligible for custom exemptions as it is already imported in the Indian Entity name
5.	Form A Should be attached (Missing from RFP Document, Refer 3.g)	Uploaded to IISc Website
6.	Software Licenses are in whose name ?	Payment will be done by IISc and Licenses should be in the name of DOT
7.	Training Details	- Content/Agenda of Training Module should be included in Technical Bid - Training should be for 10 working days / 10 officials and split into 2 parts initial & advanced Training a -Hands on Training will be at OEM/ Bidder Premises regarding the supplied tool (Refer 3.f of RFP)
8.	Payment Terms	- 60% against HW/SW delivery - 30 % after Installation, AT and Satisfactory Training - 10 % will be paid on production of Performance Bank Guarantee of 10% , valid for one year
9.	What are basis for deciding L1	L1 Bidder will be selected based on -> Price of (Tool with 1 year +warranty AMC 2 yrs)
10.	Annexure A, Point 19	Optional

11.	Important Dates	Last Date for bid submission: 12 th August, 5:00 pm Opening of Commercial Bid: 13 th August, 3:00 pm at SERC
-----	-------------------------------	---