SUB: Prof. M. C. Puri Memorial Award 2025

Dear Dr. Muthu Mathirajan,

You might be aware that the Operational Research Society of India (ORSI) was established in 1957 under the leadership of Prof. Prasanta Chandra Mahalanobis. The Operational Research Society of India has instituted the Prof. M. C. Puri Memorial Award in his honour. The award is presented every year. The awardee is an individual who happens to be a member of the Operational Research Society of India in good standing, with most of his / her work done in India, with a significant impact on promoting Operational Research in our country. The name of the award is Prof. M. C. Puri Memorial Award, which is presented during the Annual Convention of the Society every year.

I am very happy to inform you that the Award Committee of the Operational Research Society of India has selected you for “Prof. M. C. Puri Memorial Award 2025”.

Please note that you will be awarded on 6th March 2026 in the inaugural ceremony of the forthcoming ORSI Annual Convention scheduled to be held at Government Holkar Science College, Indore, from 6 to 8 March 2026. Hopefully, it would be possible for you to make it convenient to receive the award personally.

With regards,

Yours Sincerely,

Prof. Samarjit Kar

Honorary Secretary, ORSI.
